TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS!

THE OBJECT OF THIS ADVERTISEMENT is to give notice to Parents and Guardians, that the School recently taught by Mr. Lawlor

Will be continued by the undersigned from the 17th inst.

The system of teaching that will be adopted, in continuing this School, is a system which has proved itself an entire success, after an experience of twenty-two years, by a gentleman well known in our Eastern cities, to be a gentleman well known in the profession, and one worthy of imitation in everything appertaining to teaching. This system will be combined with the system lately pursued by Mr. Lawlor.

The following studies will be taught: English Grammar, Mental and Written Arithmetic, Spelling, Reading, Penmanship, Geography, History of the United States, Composition, and Practical Book-keeping, in the manner customary in the Eastern colleges.

The same books that have been used by Mr. Lawlor will be used at present.

A report will be issued to parents monthly, showing the number of failures in recitation, etc. No partiality will be shown, and parents may rest assured that their children will receive all the attention necessary to accomplish a good school education.

TUITION, FIVE DOLLARS FOR FOUR WEEKS.

The French, Latin, and German Languages will be taught by a lady of long experience.

A liberal patronage is most respectfully solicited. E. HERBERT THOMPSON, Teacher.
